Keep selling your beef draw tickets.

This week we are at the home of Kevin and Shannon Hoskins – 13594 Gosnell Line. If you plan to attend please let me know by email or phone. Kevin and Shannon would like an idea of numbers for dinner.

Kiwanian Shawn thanks hosts

93th Annual Eastern Canada & Caribbean Convention

Over 400 Kiwanians and guests attended the 93th annual E.C.&C. District Convention in Saint John, New Brunswick. It was a great convention. Congratulations to the host committee chaired by PLG John Parks.

The house of delegates voted in favour of the proposed Amendment 1 which divides the District into 10 regions, each region led by a Trustee with the ten trustees sitting on the District Board.

The new Governor-elect for 2010-2011 is Janet Atkinson from the Kiwanis Club of Bytown in Ottawa.

The Lieutenant Governor for the province of New Brunswick and the Mayor of Saint John both spoke at the opening ceremonies. Very special guest at the opening ceremonies was Superman!

Governor Gary and Julia's attention to detail showed throughout the convention. Thanks to both Gary and Julia for their work.

Division 4 was represented by Rodney, West Lorne, Forest City London, Middlesex and Ridgetown Kiwanians. Incoming LG Jim Scott had two days of intense training and is ready to assume Division 4 LG October 1. Thanks to LG Jim Garey for his leadership of our Division for the past two years. It has been a great pleasure to have Jim and Sue at our many events.

2010-2011 Governor-elect Janet Atkinson, Current Governor Gary Levine, 2010-2011 Governor Paul Toussaint

Division 4 clubs – Ridgetown, Middlesex and Forest City London were recognized for their contributions to the District HIV/AIDS project.
